MUTUALISM IN RPPs

(1) In the overlapping area of the two circles, enter the problem of practice your RPP is being formed to address.

(2) In the left and right circles, list the various beneficial outcomes, to practice partners and to research partners, that successfully engaging this problem of practice can generate.

Practice

- Benefits in Resources or K12 Activities

Research

- Benefits to Human Capacity

- Benefits in Knowledge and Know-How
MUTUALISM IN RPPs - Example

(1) In the overlapping area of the two circles, enter the problem of practice your RPP is being formed to address.

(2) In the left and right circles, list the various beneficial outcomes, to practice partners and to researcher partners that successfully engaging this problem of practice can produce.